

Right-of-Entry, Data Collection, Monitoring Consent

I/We _____, the owner(s) (collectively "Landowner") of the property commonly identified as _____, (street) Jackson, Teton County, State of Wyoming ("Property") do hereby grant and give freely and without coercion to the Flat Creek Water Improvement District, together with its board members, employees, agents, contractors, and subcontractors (collectively "WID"), the right of access and entry on and to the Property for the purposes of collecting data regarding Flat Creek (including, but not limited to, water temperature, water flow levels, icing locations, and ice depths and nature) and monitoring Flat Creek and its water flows and icing. Landowner further and in addition to hereby grants to the WID the right to access and enter on and to that portion of the Property located within the high-water marks of Flat Creek for purposes of "in-stream" flood fighting. Nothing in this consent shall be construed as giving the WID free and unlimited access to the Property or access to the Property beyond the express scope of this consent.

It is fully understood and acknowledged by the Landowner that the WID does not have any obligation or legal duty to collect data regarding Flat Creek or monitor Flat Creek and its water flows and icing. Likewise, the WID does not have any obligation or legal duty to conduct any Flat Creek watershed improvements or to fight flooding on the Property or adjacent properties.

Notwithstanding any consent, waiver or release granted herein, any action undertaken by the WID remains subject to the terms of the applicable conservation easement(s) and any amendments thereto.

The consents given herein shall remain in full force and effect unless or until Landowner withdraws the consents given herein or no longer own an interest in the Property, whichever occurs first.

By signing this document, (I/we) certify that:

1. (I/we) (am/are) the owner of the Property and/or that (I/we) (am/are) authorized to sign this document;
2. I/WE HAVE CAREFULLY REVIEWED THIS DOCUMENT; AND
3. I/WE FULLY UNDERSTAND THE TERMS AND LEGAL CONSEQUENCES OF THIS DOCUMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, for the considerations and purposes set forth herein, I/we execute this agreement this _____ day of _____, 201__.

LANDOWNER(S) SIGNATURE:

Address: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Telephone: _____

